

WI-CARH Spring Training

Here Comes the Sun. Rehab with Solar

May 16, 2018

Location: Wisconsin Management Company

Madison, Wisconsin

Registration is now open for WI-CARH's Spring Training!

Wisconsin Council for Affordable & Rural Housing will be providing an all-day training. The session will include an overview of a recent $2.8 million rehab completed by the Dane County Housing Authority including 140 KW of solar to offset heat, air conditioning and electricity costs in affordable housing. There will also be an expert panel detailing how the project was financed, designed, and installed.

After lunch we will be offering a tour of the Verona site to see the actual installation and will conduct a Q&A for how to include solar on your next rehab project.

Training will be on the following topics:

- How the solar energy generation can benefit your apartment complex
- How to finance solar as part of a larger rehab or as a standalone system
- How solar can be used when tenants pay the utilities
- Explanation of Performance Energy Contracts

Speakers:

Rob Dicke - Executive Director of the Dane County Housing Authority

Tom Langraf - Principal of Dimension Development, LLC

Michael Hein - Principal, HEIN Engineering Group

Alarik (Rik) Rosenlund - Partner and Co-Founder of Midwest Solar Power, LLC

There is limited space available, so don't delay registering.
